I am the vine; you are the branches...John 15:5

January 2026

2026 is just around the corner. The new year is a time people often look back. Let's see what was going on 100 years ago.

Walt Disney studios was established. Marilyn Monroe was born. So was Queen Elizabeth, David Attenborough, Chuck Berry and Andy Griffith. Calvin Coolidge was president for the United States' sesquicentennial [150th] birthday. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the N.Y. Yankees in the World Series, four games to three. Escape artist Harry Houdini, and sharpshooting artist Annie Oakley, as well as the actual artist Claude Monet all died that year.

This is also a time to look forward. People make resolutions about things they would like to change or improve in their lives.

We may look forward to new challenges in 2026, such as retirement, career changes, graduation, a move, or the birth of a child.

The United States will celebrate her 250th birthday. Hopefully it will be an event the nation can come together on.

The new year is also a good time for the Christian to resolve to grow closer to God. 2 Peter 3:18 tells us to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. This is not a call to develop a legalistic routine. It is more along the lines of Paul's desire: that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Philippians 3:10-11.

We should want to draw closer to God through Bible study, prayer, and church life. We need God's vision for that personally and as a church body. Proverbs 29:18 tells us, "Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law."

This list of verses encourages us to trust God's plans as we make ours. We should chase the prize God has set before us. Let's ask for the wisdom that is from above. Encourage one another in the faith, and commit to use our presence and giftedness to strengthen the life of the church. We need servants and leaders [who are also servants]! We need ideas to serve others, meet needs, and make disciples. This is why God called us out of darkness and into his wonderful light.

We should look back at how God has blessed us and this church. Celebrate our victories and learn from our mistakes. Let's also set our hearts to have a vision for how the church can grow this year, and how each one can grow individually as part of the body.
